The Second- Hand Hunter's Yard

Read and choose the correct answer:

Are you a shopaholic? Do you spend most of your hard – earned cash on buying unnecessary items? If so, you have to consider visiting The Second- Hand Hunter's Yard and hunt for cheap, second-hand and great options. You can look at many shopping alternatives and can find wonderful bargains that are lighter on your pocket.

The Second- Hand Hunter's Yard is a huge mall where you can find four shopping areas. The Car Boot Sale, the Second-Hand markets, the Charity shops and the Pop-Up event Bazaars.

The Car boot Sale takes place in the parking area of the mall at the weekends or on Bank Holidays. People swap unwanted things they brought from their homes with other traders.

The Second –Hand markets Is the biggest area of the mall. The shops can be full of surprises and interesting things to pick up. Each shop is specialized in certain items. There are rare book shops, clothing brand shops and antique furniture shops. You can find great deals but you have to be careful and check items before paying because you can't exchange them or get a refund later.

When ever there is a bazaar at The Pop-Up Event Bazaars area, it is your chance to shop till you drop. The bazaars take place in the open area of the mall that was specified for bazaars that occur on different occasions during the year such as the holidays or the national day. The bazaar is always a wonderful place not only for buying hand-made gifts and lovely items, but is also customized for the event, and shows the beauty behind holding the bazaar and raising money for charity. So, there is always a good cause behind shopping at these bazaars.

The Charity Shops sell new and used things that people donate such as toys, clothes, books, furniture and many other miscellaneous items at cheap prices. The collected money at the shops is used to help homeless and hungry people or is sent to help the people in poor countries.
