

COUNTABLE & UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS

1- Drag the pictures to match the nouns.
2- Select countable or uncountable.

*Uncountable nouns haven't got a plural form.

1- carrots

2- water

3- jam

4- chocolate

5- eggs

6- rice

7- crisps

8- meat

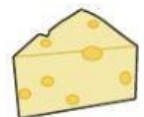

9- potatoes

10- pasta

11- vegetables

12- milk

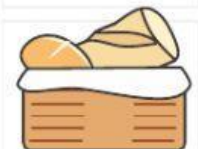

13- bananas

14- biscuits

15- tomatoes

16- cheese

17- sandwich

18- bread

COUNTABLE & UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS

a/an, some and any

	countable singular	countable plural	uncountable
affirmative	I've got an egg. There is a banana.	I've got some eggs. There are some bananas.	I've got some milk. There is some rice.
negative	You haven't got an egg. There isn't an egg.	You haven't got any eggs. There aren't any eggs.	I haven't got any milk. There isn't any rice.
interrogative	Have you got an egg? Is there a banana?	Have you got any eggs? Are there any bananas?	Have you got any milk? Is there any rice?

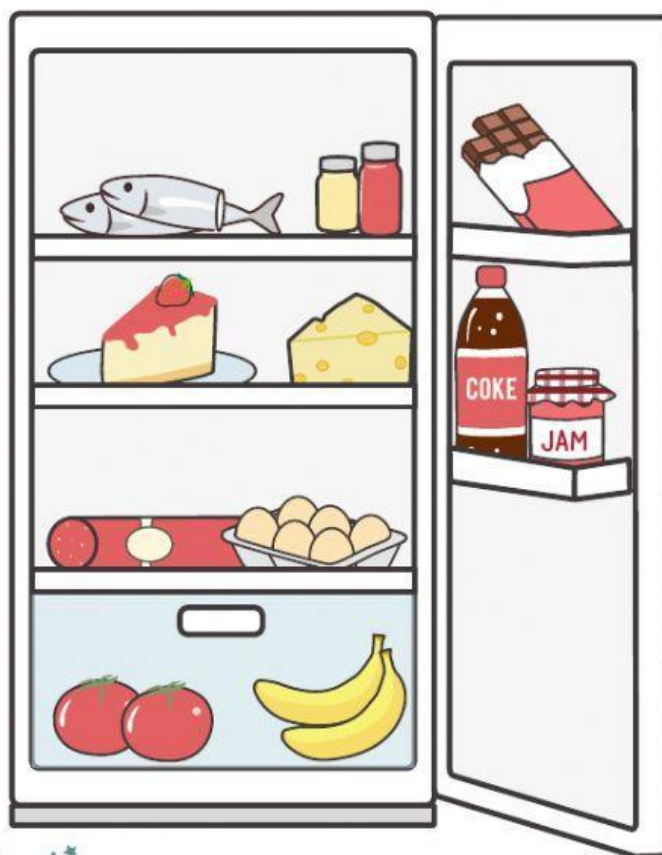

Complete the sentences.

- We use some in _____ sentences.
- We use any in _____ and _____ sentences.
- _____ nouns don't have a plural form.

Complete the sentences with:

is some isn't any are some aren't any

- There _____ potatoes.
- There _____ milk.
- There _____ bananas.
- There _____ jam.
- There _____ pears.
- There _____ coke.
- There _____ fish.
- There _____ juice.
- There _____ tomatoes.

YesESOinglës