The Blind Boy

A blind boy sat on the steps of a building with a hat at his feet. He held up a sign board which said:

I am blind. Please help.

There were only a few coins in the hat. A man was walking by. He took a few coins from his pocket and dropped them into the hat. He then took the sign board, turned it around, and wrote some words. He put the sign board back so that everyone who walked by would see the new words.

Soon the hat began to fill up. A lot more people were giving money to the blind boy.

That afternoon the man who had changed the sign board came to see how things were. The boy recognized his footsteps and asked him.

"Were you the one who changed my sign board this morning? What did you write there?"

The man said, "I only wrote the truth. I said what you said, but in a different way. I wrote:

Today is a beautiful day, but I cannot see it.
