

5Choose the correct version of these sentences by Cambridge First candidates.

- 1 a I thought the restaurant was expensive in spite the fact that the manager had told me it was cheap.
b I thought the restaurant was expensive in spite of the fact that the manager had told me it was cheap. ✓
- 2 a Although I enjoyed the book, but I found the ending very disappointing.
b Although I enjoyed the book, I found the ending very disappointing.
- 3 a You can think before to choose which one you will buy.
b You can think before choosing which one you will buy.
- 4 a He allowed me to go into the concert despite the fact that I was an hour late.
b He allowed me to go into the concert despite of the fact that I was an hour late.
- 5 a After receiving the visa, I will come and visit you in Canada.
b After received the visa, I will come and visit you in Canada.