

Review-Unit 4

Ex.1 Match the verbs in the box with phrases.

wear play decorate dance celebrate have sing

Example: eat turkey for Christmas dinner

1. _____ the house
2. _____ a musical instrument
3. _____ a party
4. _____ Thanksgiving
5. _____ the samba
6. _____ new clothes
7. _____ Happy Birthday

Ex.2. Choose the correct words.

1. Christmas is in February / December.
2. 21st March is the first day of summer / spring in the UK.
3. February/May has got more days than September.
4. St. Valentine's Day is in / on 14th February.
5. April/March is the third month of the year.
6. October is in winter / autumn.
7. There are thirty days in November / January.
8. January is in winter / summer in Australia.

Ex.3.Choose the correct form of the verbs.

1. The Irish celebrates / celebrate Saint Patrick's Day on 17th March.
2. My cousin has / have a New Year's party every year.
3. My sister and I visits / visit our grandparents in summer.
4. I gives / give presents to all my friends at Christmas.
5. My mother makes / make a special meal on New Year's Day.
6. They wears/wear party clothes on New Year's Eve.
7. We dances / dance in the streets on Carnival day.
8. A friend visits / visit me every summer.

Ex.4. Write affirmative sentences. Use the present simple.

0. He hot dogs.
1. My father Christmas dinner
2. I an instrument in a band
3. We in a small village
4. My parents a party every year
5. You in January
6. She to school every day
7. My dog football with me

Ex.5. Write negative sentences in present simple.

0. He like hot dogs.
1. My father cook Christmas dinner
2. I play an instrument in a band
3. We live in a small village
4. My parents have a party every year
5. You ski in January
6. She walk to school every day
7. My dog play football with me

Ex.6. Complete the dialogue with the words in the box.

Why don't who great Why not! on 15th December doesn't matter don't

Liza: Hey, _____ are the people in the hall?

Tim: We've got practice for our Christmas show. I'm a singer in the show.

Liza: That's _____ !

Tim: Yes, there's practice every Monday, and _____ there's a show at school for parents and students. _____ you come along?

Liza: But I _____ act or sing!

Tim: That _____. Why not come and make some costumes, or decorate the hall?

Liza: Yes, OK. _____

Ex.7.Listen to four people talking about special days. Match sentences with speakers 1-4.
There is one sentence that you do not need. (Drag and drop)

I go to a restaurant on my name day.

My grandmother comes for Christmas every year.

Friends come to my house and we have a party.

I eat turkey and sweets with my family.

I wear a costume and dance in the street.

Speaker 1
Speaker 2
Speaker 3
Speaker 4	