Passage 5-6

5.

Search for people, places and things.

Christy Lin : I am so excited. Sports day is tomorrow. Class 208 is going to win tug-of-war. It's a game of a rope, and all of us work together. We are the strongest. ^^

David Huang: Ya! We will win if we all remember what the PE teacher taught us. Pull harder and pull together at the same time.

John Marvin: No way! You won't get the prize because the team of my class is much better than yours. Besides, we were the champion last year.

Patty Ku: John, come on. Winning isn't everything. We just enjoy working together.

David Huang: I couldn't agree with you more, Patty. Cooperation is what we learn in the game of tug-of-war.

Christy Lin: Go! Go! Go! Keep working hard! We will all try our best. We are already the number one team in our hearts, right?

Patty Ku: You can say that again.

I am Remy, and I am a chef at Gusteau's. The other cooks are all friendly to me. At first, they were a little worried because I'm a rat. Even a knife is bigger and heavier than I. Besides that, food safety is the most important thing at Gusteau's. So, I wash my hands many times before I start cooking, and stay away from my rat friends when I am working.

But what really makes me a good chef? It's my sense of smell. I have the best sense of smell in the restaurant, and it helps me with the cooking. Many people come to Gusteau's just for my steak. It smells good and tastes delicious. We have much more customers than before. Gusteau's is now the most popular restaurant in town, and I am for sure the happiest rat chef in the world.

Have you ever heard about C.S. Lewis's Narnia stories? If you are a Narnia fan, maybe you have seen the Narnia series movies, like The Lions, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. In fact, many movies are adapted from famous novels. Why would movie workers like to turn novels into movies? There are some possible reasons. First, it is a much easier way to make a movie because the story is already there. Second, it's very possible that people who love the original novels would also want to
