

Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first sentence. Use the word in bold.

1 Jack has got three bedrooms in his house. (THERE)
In Jack's house ..... bedrooms.

2 My cat isn't as heavy as my dog. (THAN)
My dog ..... my cat.

3 Kevin plans to buy some flowers for his mum. (GOING)
Kevin ..... some flowers for his mum.

4 He hasn't got any sugar in his cupboard. (ANY)
There ..... in his cupboard.

5 It's forbidden to eat in the classroom. (EAT)
You ..... in the classroom.

Choose the correct item.

1 I don't want ..... dinner, thank you.
A some C a
B any D an

2 Jimmy loves ..... football with his brothers.
A playing C play
B is playing D plays

3 That's the ..... rugby ball; they need it for their game.
A boy C boys
B boy's D boys'

4 Kerry ..... for her exams at the moment.
A study C is studying
B studies D are studying

5 She ..... a beautiful bike when she was young.
A had C were
B could D was

6 Warren ..... to New York this evening.
A will fly C are going to fly
B is flying D fly

7 I don't know ..... Mr Jones is. I've never heard of him.
A what C who
B where D when

8 You ..... do that. I don't think it's a good idea.
A shouldn't C can't
B mustn't D must

9 There are ..... books here – there isn't room for all of them in your bag.
A little C a few
B too many D too much

10 You're a great cook; ..... food is delicious!
A this C these
B that D those

Choose the correct item.

1 Marble Arch is a famous ..... in London.

A temple                    C monument
B statue                    D passageway

2 The ..... protects the building and keeps it safe.

A priest                    C soldier
B guard                    D king

3 Alana and her ..... have got four children.

A son                      C husband
B nephew                   D uncle

4 You can ..... an animal by giving the charity £10 every month.

A protect                   C adopt
B care                      D handle

5 The soldiers used explosives to ..... up the bridge.

A light                    C heat
B burn                    D blow

6 Tigers have very long and sharp .....

A tails                    C trunks
B claws                    D necks

7 You can ..... music on your computer's hard drive.

A hide                    C keep
B save                    D store

8 Can you get me a ..... of honey from the shop?

A cup                      C bar
B jar                       D can

9 Italy is my favourite ..... in Europe.

A village                   C country
B field                    D scenery

10 I entered a competition on TV and won a ..... of £100.

A medal                    C prize
B metal                    D trophy

