

True or False exercise:

Instructions:

Read each statement about financial dashboards carefully. Decide whether the statement is true or false based on your understanding of the information provided. Write "T" if the statement is true and "F" if the statement is false.

1. Financial dashboards show a quick view of a company's money performance. ( )
2. Financial dashboards have three important parts: important numbers, nice look, and easy to use. ( )
3. It's better to include all kinds of numbers and information on a financial dashboard. ( )
4. Sales, profit, and margin are important numbers to include on a financial dashboard. ( )
5. Financial dashboards should be easy to read with big text and large numbers. ( )
6. Graphs and charts can be used to show patterns and trends on a financial dashboard. ( )
7. It's not important for a financial dashboard to let users explore the data and find more information. ( )
8. Looking at numbers in different ways, like by category or time period, can give helpful information on a financial dashboard. ( )
9. Financial dashboards should compare actual data to the budget or plan. ( )
10. Measuring consumer sentiment of a company is an important metric to include on a financial dashboard. ( )
11. Financial dashboards should include as much information as possible to be comprehensive. ( )
12. Financial dashboards only have two important parts: important numbers and nice look. ( )
13. Financial dashboards should have small text and small numbers to fit more information. ( )
14. Graphs and charts should be avoided on a financial dashboard because they are confusing. ( )
15. Financial dashboards should not compare actual data to the budget or plan because it's not useful. ( )
16. Net promoter score is not an important metric to include on a financial dashboard. ( )
17. Financial dashboards should be designed to be complex and hard to understand to show the company's expertise. ( )
18. It's not important to look at numbers in different ways on a financial dashboard. ( )
19. Financial dashboards don't need to be visually appealing as long as they have important information. ( )
20. Interactivity is not important for a financial dashboard because users don't need to explore further. ( )