Disabilities and Types of Media

1. What is a disability?

It is a_mental or physical condition that prevents the body from running as it should.

It is a_mental or physical condition that prevents the legs from working, as they should.

It is a_mental or physical condition that prevents the body from working, as it should.

2. Write physical or mental disabilities.

A. Blindness _____

B. Deafness _____

C. Emotional disturbances _____

D. speech _____

E. defects _____

F. paralysis _____

G. mental retardation _____

3. What is another name for paralysis?

A. Cripple

B. Deafness

C. Blindness

4. What are two things that people with disabilities want people to show them?

A. Respect and care

B. Understanding and food

C. Care and shopping

5. A disability is not a _____that can be spread to another person.

6. What is the purpose of the media?

A. They are used to stream information.

B. They are used to show information.

C. They are used to transmit information.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. What are two examples of electronic media?

A. Television and radio

B. Newspapers and magazine

C. Newspapers and television

8. What are two examples of print media?

A. Television and radio

B. Newspapers and magazine

C. Magazine and radio

9. What is one thing that will not affect people when they watch and listen to television and radio?

A. what they eat

B. what they wear

C. how they sleep

D. how they spend their resources

10. Everyone should be careful what they post on the _____

11. When using someone else work we should always get_____

12. The media communicates

A. positive and negative messages

B. positive and notable messages

C. pleasant and negative messages

LIVEWORKSHEETS