

АУДИРОВАНИЕ- часть II

№1.

What does the report say?

- a) Psychotherapists are not interested in hypnosis
- b) Hypnosis is no longer a mysterious phenomenon
- c) French psychoanalysts are still against the medical application of hypnosis
- d) In France hypnosis has gained wider acceptance among sociologists than among psychoanalysts

№2.

What can one conclude about acupuncture treatment in our time?

- a) It will be discussed by the Chinese Federation of acupuncture specialists
- b) It is recognized as a foundation for a number of medical treatments in China and many other countries
- c) It can cure at least 300 ailments even when used alone
- d) It has been recognized as an alternative method of treatment by 80 members of the International Federation

№3.

According to this American astronomer, what is true about Mars?

- a) The origin of Mars is quite different from that of the other planets in the solar system
- b) Primitive forms of life existed on Mars before they appeared on Earth
- c) At one time there were many rivers on Mars
- d) Originally the surface of Mars was cold and dry

№4.

Which statement best summarizes the program?

- a) Russian surgeons are following in the footsteps of their American colleagues in performing operations
- b) Until recently there were no direct ties between American and Russian eye surgeons
- c) American surgeons are worried about the long-term effects of laser surgery
- d) Laser eye surgery is not yet available in Russia

№5.

What was the result of the research?

- a) People who eat at least 30 grams of fish per day have 50% fewer heart attacks
- b) In order to avoid heart attacks people should eat at least 100 grams of fish a day
- c) People who increased eating fish from 30 to 100 grams per day did not have a single heart attack
- d) In order to avoid heart attacks people should make fish at least 27 percent of their daily diets

№6.

1. What motivated the author to start playing chess at a young age?

- a) His parents forced him to learn chess
- b) His parents did not earn much money, so he had to work
- c) He was naturally interested in the game of chess
- d) He wanted to be a chess champion like Garry Kasparov

2. How did the author's parents support his interest in chess?

- a) They enrolled him in a chess club
- b) They hired a private chess tutor for him
- c) They spent a lot of time playing chess with him
- d) They did not support his interest in chess

3. What is the author's attitude towards his childhood spent playing chess?

- a) He regrets not having more time to play outside and read books
- b) He thinks it was a waste of his childhood
- c) He is grateful for the opportunity to play chess and pursue his passion
- d) He wishes he had chosen a different career path

№7.

1. Why does the husband not want to go to the Ivanovs' dacha?

- a) He does not like the Ivanovs
- b) He does not want to spend half the weekend in the car
- c) He is afraid of traffic
- d) He does not like spending time with his wife

2. What does the wife suggest they do to get to the dacha?

- a) Drive their car
- b) Take the bus
- c) Take the train
- d) Walk

3. Why does the husband say he pretended to have fun during their last visit with the Ivanovs?

- a) To make his wife happy
- b) To impress the Ivanovs
- c) To hide his true feelings
- d) To be polite

№8.

1. The speaker thinks that

- a) he made a mistake in choosing the book
- b) the book's author has bad taste
- c) he wasted his money buying the book

2. The speaker

- a) regularly visits bookstores
- b) rarely goes to bookstores
- c) never goes to bookstores

№9.

1. At the conference, presentations can be given

- a) only in Russian
- b) in Russian or English
- c) only in English

2. Applications to participate in the conference and presentation abstracts

- a) can be submitted on the website of the philological faculty

- b) need to be sent to the university by mail
- c) must be brought to the university.

№10.

1. Maxim Averin considers himself an actor

- a) who is capable of achieving much more
- b) has already achieved maximum fame
- c) is still not well-known to many

2. Maxim Averin's performance makes an impression of

- a) a well-thought-out monologue
- b) a monologue that is not very interesting to the artist himself
- c) an honest and emotional story