Fill in the blank spaces in the paragraph with the appropriate form (present continuous or simple present) of the given verbs (Think, Come, Give, Look, Use, Find, Want, Tell, Put, Bring and Mean). Ensure that the filled verbs make sense within the context of the paragraph and maintain coherence.

Living in another country is an exciting adventure that constantly _____ new experiences and challenges. As an expatriate, you are _____ about how to adapt to the local culture. Every day, you _____ yourself _____ across interesting customs and traditions. Alongside the native residents, you _____ your best effort to understand their way of life. As you _____ around, you _____ every opportunity to immerse yourself in the local community. You _____ to fully experience the richness of this new environment. Let the locals _____ you their stories and meaningful insights. It's important to _____ yourself out there and make connections. Living in a foreign country _____ embracing the unknown and being open to new possibilities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS