

About cultures and cities

- Complete the articles using present simple
- Remember the examples:

| Sentence | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tourists usually like traditional food.• A tourist always visits landmarks. |
|----------|--|
| Positive | |
| Negative | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• In Asia people don't usually kiss others to greet.• They don't speak English... |

| Question | Does New Zealand have volcanoes? Yes, it does. |
|--------------|---|
| Wh-Questions | Do they speak Spanish? No, they don't Where do people travel in summer? |

We use present simple to talk about permanent situations, habits, routines and facts.

For example:

1. I always travel to Brazil in summer. I don't go by car; I usually go by plane.

2. My best friend goes to Brazil every summer. She doesn't like swimming but she loves sunbathing.

Now let's put everything into practice!

1) CHOOSE the correct option

CHINESE CULTURE

Red is / are a traditional color for Chinese people. They usually wear / wears red outfits for special celebrations. For example, every year they celebrate / celebrates New Year. They usually cook / cooks special meals and spend / spends time with friends. They don't / doesn't display fireworks like other cultures but they decorate / decorates their houses...

2) Complete with negative and affirmative forms

PERÚ AND ITS INCREDIBLE CULTURE

- In Perú people always _____ (share) something to eat and drink with tourists.
- Peruvians _____ (enjoy) nature every day. They _____ (not damage) the environment.
- Peru is famous for its traditional clothes. Local people always _____ (wear) "ponchos". They _____ (have) colorful designs.
- Ceviche is a traditional meal from Perú. It _____ (have) lots of ingredients but it _____ (taste) very well. It's a delicious option...

3. Make questions:

Examples:

a. What – people wear – in special occasions in China?

What do people wear in special occasions in China?

b. What – Peru – have in common with Argentina?

What does Peru have in common with Argentina?

- What language – people speak in Thailand?
- What food – people like in Bolivia?
- Where – people go for fun in Peru?
- What – sports – most people play in Argentina?
- Where – people – listen to tango?
- How often – Perú – receive tourists?
- What – Brazil – have in common with Peru?
- What – people eat – in Brazil?
- What languages – people – speak in Brazil?

WRITING TASK

Choose one of the following places and write a short description.

Remember to use SIMPLE PRESENT!

Use these questions as a guide to write

- Where is this place?
- What languages do people speak?
- What does this place have in particular?
- What activities/traditions do people have in this place?
- What places do people usually visit?

AMSTERDAM

FRANCE

URUGUAY