Match

Match the sentence with its accent.

Scots •

• It emerged as the language of religion, education and government.

• It's considered to be the founding language of Scotland.

SSE •

• A Germanic language with its own unique grammar, syntax, vocabulary and idiom.

• It's rhotic, it has highly distinct vowel sounds, and it contains a fricative 'ch' sound.

Gaelic •

• It's much closer in style to that of English.