

REORDER THE SENTENCES

1. is/ His determination to win the race/ evidenced/ hours of training./ by
2. evidence / carcinogens can cause cancer. / According to/ presented in many studies, /
3. indicates / longer life expectancy / that / current high cancer rates. / plays a role in / Data
4. cancer rates/ Numbers / that / are remaining stable. / suggest
5. the mortality rate / Findings / that / of cancer has decreased. / reveal
6. cancer begins with / Past studies / a mutation in a cell. / that / established
7. various sources of cancer / uncovered / Research / over the past century. / has
8. a leading cause of death / cancer / Statistics / is / show that / in the United States.
9. lifestyle choices / individuals' likelihood to develop the disease. / What was found / can greatly impact / is that
10. concluded / contained cancerous cells. / The laboratory analyst / the tissue / that