Countable and Uncountable

A. Sort the words into the proper boxes of countable and uncountable.

advice bus bread accommodation task bed luggage information damage hotel service

equipment cheese apple furniture meat

Countable	Uncountable

B. Choose the correct words in the sentences.

1. When we go on holiday, we always take too _____.
2. I've done a bit of babysitting, so I can give you _____ if you like.
3. My brother ate some _____ that _____ left on the table.
4. Could I have some more _____ on this project?
5. There _____ not enough _____ on the pizza.
6. The _____ in the office where my dad works is so old-fashioned!
7. On our school excursion trip the _____ with host families.
8. Would you like _____ for dinner tonight?
9. The ball flew through the open window into the room, but fortunately it didn't do _____!
10. The new _____ us to produce more items.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. Sort the words into the proper boxes of phrases.

advice bread luggage information meat

cheese furniture meat bread

a piece of/pieces of	a slice of/slices of	a loaf of/loaves of

D. Rewrite the sentences in B by using the phrases mentioned in C.

Ex. 1. When we go on holiday, we always take too many pieces of luggage.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

LIVEWORKSHEETS