Lucky coincidence

Milton Jackson _____ (be) Jamaican who _____ (live) in Manchester. He _____ (leave) his home in Kingston when he _____ (be) 18 years old. He _____ (work) there for 5 years as a barman before he _____ (leave). Then he _____ (decide) to go to England _____ (find) a better job. So, he _____ (buy) a one-way ticket to Liverpool. While _____ (sunbath) on the board, a young woman, whose name _____(be) Kate and _____ (travel) after her holidays in Jamaica back to England, _____ (introduce) to him.

"You _____ (must) visit me in Manchester," she said, "I _____ (introduce) you to my brother. He _____ (be) a football player."

"Who _____ (he/ play) for?" asked Milton.

"For Manchester United, he _____ (play) for them for 2 years," answered Kate.

Milton _____ (be) very surprised and excited.

"I _____ (play) football since my childhood," he added.

As soon as they _____ (arrive) in England, Milton _____ (go) with his new friend to Manchester. Meeting her brother _____ (be) very interesting. He _____ (introduce) Milton to his manager.

Now, Milton _____ (play) for the Manchester United every week and _____ (enjoy) his life. He _____ (travel) whole Europe so far and _____ (find) a lot of friends. He _____ (own) a big house in Cheshire and _____ (drive) Porche. And what about Kate? She _____ (marry) Milton next August.