

Food: Where does it come from?

Q1 Fill in the blanks

1. To cook rice, we need raw rice and water. Raw rice and water known are as _____ that are required to cook rice.
2. Mushrooms which grow on their own can be _____ or _____.
3. We get oil from _____ and vegetable from _____ of mustard plant.
4. Eggs are rich source of _____ and _____.
5. Butterflies have _____ like mouth parts to suck nectar from flowers.
6. Chameleons have _____ tongue which helps them to catch _____.

Q2 Multiple choice questions

1. The colour of structures grown out from the sprouted seeds is
 - (a) white
 - (b) black
 - (c) red
 - (d) green
2. Example of decomposer is
 - (a) jackal
 - (b) vulture
 - (c) hyena
 - (d) bacteria
3. The part of a plant that cannot be eaten is called

- (a) edible
- (b) poisonous
- (c) non edible
- (d) hard part

Q3 True or False

1. Mushroom is known as plants. _____
2. We eat roots of radish. _____
3. Meat is the source of protein. _____
4. All animals have same food habits. _____
5. Wolves are examples of omnivores. _____
6. Squirrels are an example of herbivores that help to gnaw nuts. _____
7. Eagles have straight beak that helps them tear flesh of their prey. _____
8. Bugs are endoparasite. _____
9. Sprouted seeds contain more proteins. _____