ENTRANCE EXAM 6 – PART 1 – LISTENING

Exercise 05: You will hear a man talking about a course for teenagers who are interested in working on the radio. Supply the missing information. You should write NO MORE THAN four words. An example is done for you.

Example:

This year's Radio Camp is going to be at our radio station on 102 Golden Street.

Our popular three-week summer camps are already getting full!

Question 1. We start on June 25th, but if you can't come then, there's another camp starting _____, and the last one's on August 6th.

Question 2. At camp, we'll teach you how to use _____and to write a play for young actors. This summer you won't learn how to write about the news.

Question 3. You'll meet the local journalist, Luke Berry, and a _____ who've just finished a world tour! We'll tell you who it is when you join.

Question 4. Everyone gets a T-shirt to wear at camp. All you need to bring are your own snacks and some great ideas. And wear _____ like sneakers and shorts.

If you book before midnight, you'll get a discount! $476 is the usual price, but now it's half-price — $238. To get this special offer, visit our website.

Exercise 06: You will hear a teacher telling a class about some homework. Supply the missing information. You should write NO MORE THAN four words. An example is done for you.

Example:

I want to give you some information about your homework. You have to do it for our lesson on Friday. I know I'll see you on Wednesday, but you'll need more time.

Question 1. For _____, you found out about birds, but now I'd like you to get all the information you can about bees. They're really interesting.

Question 2. You can start by reading _____. It's on page 67. But don't go on to pages 68 and 69. We'll read those together in class.

Question 3. After you've read the page in your book, you can learn more online. There's a good website called www.nature.com. OK? There's also one called www.world.com, but that's less useful, so _____with that.

Question 4. Then I want you to write a paragraph about what you've learnt. Last time, you wrote 150 words, but now I'd _____, please.

One more thing — you don't need to include any photos, but I'd like you to do a drawing. Any questions?
