

Noun clause exercises

1. Choose the correct conjunction to complete the noun clause.

- Pay attention to _____ i'm going to say
- I want to know _____ is she sad
- I couldn't tell him _____
- I often wonder _____ he is getting on
- I feel _____ i will fail

How-that-what-why-where i was

2. Choose only one conjunction to complete the noun clause in the correct way.

The students are organizing an election in order to decide _____ will be the new class president

- a) What
- b) Whose
- c) who
- d) whoever

My friends didn't know _____ I could ride a bike

- a) If
- b) who
- c) wherever
- d) that

_____ Tommy said surprised his teacher

- a) Whose
- b) Whom
- c) Whether
- d) What

3. Identify the noun clause and write what type of function it does. (As a subject, complement or prepositional complement)

- 'Whoever thought of that idea' is a genius. _____
- On weekends, we can do 'whatever we want' _____
- Peter is proud of what he did _____

