

1. Put the adjectives/adverbs in brackets in the correct comparative/superlative form.

1. Which of these dogs is typically _____ (heavy) than 50 kgs? English Mastiff or Chihuahua?
2. What is the world record for _____ (long) television interview?
3. A smokejumper's job is much _____ (dangerous) than a shop assistant's.
4. Joan is _____ (polite) secretary in the office. She often shouts at customers.
5. _____ (experienced) workers usually make _____ (little) money than the qualified workers.
6. This painting is slightly _____ (expensive) than the one hanging over there because it was painted by the winner of the Art competition.
7. Denis Vasilyevich works _____ (hard) of all the coaches.
8. Some young people think that finding a job is _____ (stressful) than attending university so they don't need higher education.
9. Working as a video game tester sounds much _____ (interesting) for many of the young people than working as a gardener.
10. Your skills in the job are getting _____ (good) and _____ (good), but keep practising.

2. Read the text about paragliding. Write the correct form of the words in brackets

The Paragliding Championships take place today to determine _____ (fast) racer, and Kelly is checking the weather forecast. All of the racers hope the day will be _____ (clear) than yesterday because poor visibility causes a "No Fly Day".

The weatherman says there are no clouds and it is _____ (warm) day of the week so far. That's great news. The time to WB start arrives so Kelly begins strapping her backpack on and heading to the take-off point.

She's nervous because she is _____ (experienced) than some of the other competitors. It is her first serious competition while the others have already taken part in three or four. Kelly checks the wind speed. It's rather _____ (strong) now so she makes the necessary adjustments. Her goal is to fly _____ (high) of all the racers.

It's time to start. Good luck, Kelly!

Paragliding in Kolomna