UNIT 5. SPANISH CONSTITUTION
STATUTE OF AUTONOMY

1. Complete the text.

The Constitution organised Spain into _____ communities, provinces and _____. It permits the autonomous communities to be self-_____. Each has its own name, _____, capital, flag and official languages, as well as its own set of _____ that describe how each community will make decisions. It is called the _____ of Autonomy.

2. Choose the correct options.

_____ can have their own government called the provincial council.

_____ are the smallest territories.

_____ have a town council with a mayor and councillors.

_____ are made up of municipalities.

3. Complete the text.

The autonomous communities have their own _____ to make decisions and pass _____. They are divided into three _____ just like the national institutions:

- Executive: A _____ and councillors
- _____ : A parliament elected by the people
- Judicial: _____ of the community

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Classify the words in the box.

Orense | Ciudad Real | Comunidad Valenciana | Tarragona | Zamora | Cataluña | La Rioja | Cáceres | Comunidad de Madrid | Granada | Andalucía | Cantabria

Autonomous communities	Provinces

LIVEWORKSHEETS