Organization of the human body

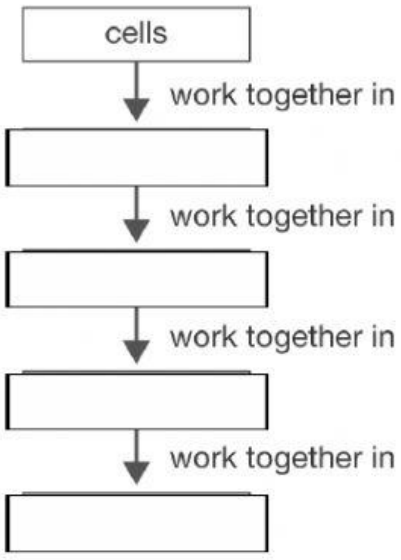

1. Fill in the blanks with the concepts seen in class.

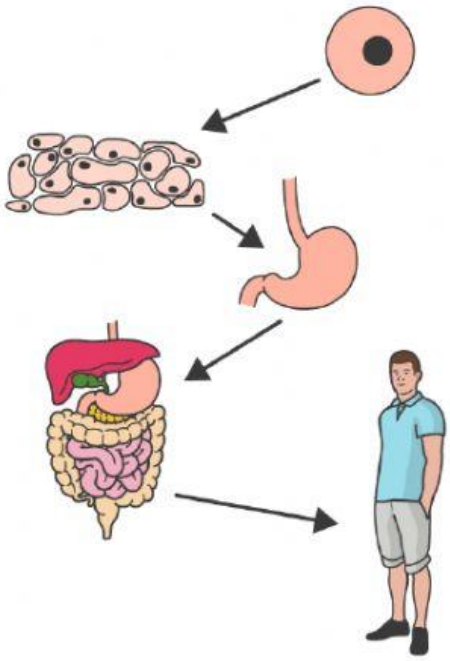

_____ is the 2nd level of biological organization, and is formed by groups of _____ that have the same shape and function. _____ are part of the 3rd level of biological organization. They are groups of _____ that work together.

_____ are the 4t level of biological organization. They are groups of _____ that work together.

_____ are the fifth level of biological organization. They are living things with many body systems that help them to be alive.

2. Complete the diagram with the levels of biological organization.

LIVEWORKSHEETS