

English for children

Write the correct preposition.

1. Paul is British. He lives        England.
2. He plays volleyball        Sundays.
3. We are meeting        five o'clock this afternoon.
4. Her birthday is        April.
5. When they arrived        the party, everything has already finished.
6. She doesn't know anything        all.
7. The bus arrives        London        9 o'clock.
8. I don't know what he is doing        the morning.
9. My brother always finishes his training        7 o'clock.

 Find us on
Facebook

Lore Fonseca

Write the correct preposition of time

1. Dad does not work      Sunday.
2. She has a birthday      February.
3. School usually starts      September.
4. We usually visit our Grandmother      Easter.
5. We sold the house      1995.
6. Leaves usually fall from the trees      October.
7. My lesson starts      8:15.
8. I like to do nothing      weekend.
9. I will be at home      12:30, so you can call me.
10. His grandfather was born      April.

 Find us on
Facebook

Lore Fonseca

