

Living Things In Their Environment

Use the word bank below to complete the sentences.

moisture	tide	trees	migrate	years
adapted	hibernate	habitat	light	behavior
water	environment	animals	predators	petals
nocturnal	pollination	coats	leaves	food

The place where something lives is called its . The conditions in a habitat make up the organisms . Plants and develop features and become to their environment over millions of .

Daily changes, in conditions like , temperature and levels in the air can affect the of plants and animals. Most flowers open their during the day to allow and close them at night for protection. Some animals avoid by being active at night. We call them animals. Estuaries and beaches change every time the goes in or out.

Most organisms have to adapt to yearly changes in temperature, sunlight, availability of and availability of . Some animals due to a food shortage, other animals especially birds to warmer places for the winter. Animals store food and mammals grow thick . Flowers die off and deciduous lose their because there is less light and water about.