

4 Complete the sentences as in the example:

Long Form

- 1 It will rain tomorrow.
- 2 I'm sure she will not be late.
- 3 He will not pass the test.
- 4 We will not have a party.
- 5 I will not call you tonight.

Short Form

- 1 It 'll rain tomorrow.
- 2 I'm sure she isn't be late.
- 3 He isn't pass the test.
- 4 We isn't have a party.
- 5 I isn't call you tonight.

5 Fill in the gaps with will, won't or shall.

- 1 A: I'm so hungry, Mum.
B: I will make you some sandwiches.
- 2 A: Jimmy, be careful! The cooker is still very hot. You will burn your hand.
B: OK, Mum!
- 3 A: I will call you every day while I am on holiday.
B: That's very nice of you.
- 4 A: I'm very thirsty!
B: I will bring you a glass of water.
- 5 A: I want to tell you a secret.
B: OK, I promise I will not tell anyone.

- 6 A: Will I get you another glass of lemonade?
B: Yes, please.
- 7 A: Charlie will not come to practice today. He broke his leg.
B: Oh, that's terrible!
- 8 A: I will not go out tonight. I don't feel well.
B: Then you should go to bed early.
- 9 A: Will you help me? I think I'm lost.
B: Of course!

6 Fill in the gaps with will, won't or shall.

Jim: 1) Shall we go to Snacks Restaurant for lunch?

Lucia: No, you 2) won't like the food there. I think you 3) will like the new café in York Street.

Jim: OK. We 4) will take the bus there. 5) Will I phone John and ask him if he wants to come?

Lucia: I'm sure he 6) wants to come but we 7) don't have time to wait for him here.

Jim: 8) Will I tell him to meet us there?

Lucia: That's a good idea. Tell him we 9) will meet him outside the café.

Jim: 10) Will I tell him to be there in half an hour? 11) Will that give us enough time?

Lucia: Yes, I think so.