

Name _____

Date _____

Slavery in the North & South Quiz 3

1. Where did the abolitionist movement begin?
 - a. Columbia
 - b. Philadelphia
 - c. New York
 - d. Boston
2. Someone who worked to end slavery was called an _____.
 - a. abolitionist
 - b. planter
 - c. tariff
 - d. broadside
3. People who escaped slavery were known as _____.
 - a. conductors
 - b. stationmasters
 - c. abolitionists
 - d. fugitives
4. Who was one of the most well-known conductors on the Underground Railroad?
 - a. Harriet Tubman
 - b. Frederick Douglass
 - c. Sojourner Truth
 - d. Sarah Grimke
5. _____ led fugitives and gave them directions to safe stations on the Underground Railroad.
 - a. Abolitionists
 - b. Depots
 - c. Fugitives
 - d. Conductors
6. What was the name of the anti-slavery newspaper that William Garrison published?
 - a. The North Star
 - b. The Liberator
 - c. The Broadside
 - d. The Abolitionist
7. Who started the New England Anti-Slavery Society?
 - a. Frederick Douglass
 - b. Sojourner Truth
 - c. Sarah Grimke
 - d. William Garrison
8. _____ was a formerly enslaved person who wrote a book and started an abolitionist newspaper.
 - a. Sojourner Truth
 - b. Abraham Lincoln
 - c. Harriet Tubman
 - d. Frederick Douglass
9. Who was a former slave who was famous for her speeches against slavery, as well as her stance on women's rights?
 - a. Sojourner Truth
 - b. Grimke Sisters
 - c. Harriet Tubman
 - d. Frederick Douglass
10. Who was born to a rich planter family in SC, but went against her family's beliefs to become an abolitionist?
 - a. Sojourner Truth
 - b. Grimke Sisters
 - c. Harriet Tubman
 - d. Frederick Douglass