

Inversion of subject and verb

I can use adverbials at the start of the sentence.

Rarely

Little

Nowhere ➕ auxiliary ➕ Subject

Never again

No longer

Not only

Only after/when

Not since ➕ Sentence ➕ auxiliary ➕ Subject

When

Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. No longer/Not since the summer after leaving school had we all met.
2. Only when/Not only you train really hard will you be ready for the competition.
3. When/Never had John been to such a fantastic restaurant.
4. Rarely/Not since do I leave my house so early.
5. Not since/Rarely do people appreciate this musician's talent.
6. Nowhere/Only after would be understand what had happened that night.
7. Only when/Nowhere had they met such rude people before.
8. When/Little did he understand about the situations.

Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. Never seen such a beautiful place?
2. Rarely be successful in this field.
3. Rarely out for dinner.
4. No longer opened the door when I saw the thief.
5. Rarely attention to the teacher.
6. Never again get into that room.
7. Never before to escape, but he did it.
8. Never go there alone.
9. Only after years of education become a doctor.