

Revision - Negative sentences 2

a) Copy these class notes in your notebook:

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. He is her brother.→ He is not her brother.→ He isn't her brother.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Oraciones con auxiliar → se añade not detrás del auxiliar (se suele contraer como n't en inglés oral).                                                                               | Verbos auxiliares: am, is, are, was, were, have, has, had, will, would, can, could, must, should, may, might,...                                            |
| 2. They speak French.→ They do not speak French.→ They don't speak French. 3. She drives a red car.→ She does not drive a red car.→ She doesn't drive a red car. 4. He ate the sandwich.→ He did not eat the sandwich.→ He didn't eat the sandwich. | Oraciones sin auxiliar → se usa como auxiliar DO, DOES o DID. El verbo va en infinitivo (sin -s y sin -ed). Se añade NOT detrás del auxiliar, que va detrás del sujeto y delante del verbo. | Se usa DON'T y DOESN'T para el presente simple (DOESN'T si el verbo termina en -s). Se usa DIDN'T para el pasado simple. |

b) Transform these sentences into negative:

5. We can do the exam tomorrow.

6. They must use a dictionary for this exercise.

7. Her mother works at a hospital.

8. His sisters are doing their homework.

9. She has finished all the work.

10. The bus arrived late.