

What's in your calendar? Discuss the questions.

• Do you use a calendar to remember important events and dates? To plan your week? Do you prefer a digital or a paper one?

- What kind of events do you put in your calendar?
- What things do you never forget?
- Do you have the birthdays of your friends and family in your calendar?

Complete the gaps with the correct preposition. Then, choose the correct option.

- a) There are 30 days June/July.
- b) Easter is always celebrated Saturday/Sunday.
- c) There were 29 days February 2019/2020.
- d) The COVID-19 pandemic started 2018/2019.
- e) The longest school break is the summer/the winter.
- f) 12 a.m. is night/ the afternoon.
- g) The days get longer the spring/the autumn.

Read the sentences and complete the gaps with the correct preposition or leave them blank if no preposition is needed.

- a) Let's meet next week.
- b) The meeting starts 3 p.m.
Don't be late!
- c) I have an appointment with our mentor the 12th of July.
- d) What are you planning to do the weekend?
- e) We are working on a really important issue this month.
- f) I have an English lesson Monday.
- g) I started working here 2012.
- h) We will celebrate it March.
- i) We will go to a restaurant Valentine's Day.
- j) He usually has a holiday spring.
- k) I'm more productive the evening.
- l) I don't sleep well night.
- m) We had good results last year.
- n) They will arrive Thursday evening.