

Write the correct preposition.

- The preposition at is used to refer to specific times and moments of the day:

ten o'clock

midnight

- We also use on with some expressions of time:

Christmas

the present

the moment

the weekend

- The preposition on is used with days of the week and dates:

Monday

my birthday

April 10

- The preposition in is used with months:

January

the previous month

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

- is also used with the seasons of the year:

summer

winter

autumn

spring

- As well as with longer periods of time:

this century

the 1960s

- And with some time expressions that refer to periods of the day (except with "night")

the morning

the afternoon

the evening

 Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

