IV. Read the passage, then decide if the statements that follow it are* TRUE or FALSE. (1.5 pt)

The hamburger has no connection to ham. It got its name from the German town of Hamburg, which was famous for its ground steak. German immigrants to the United States introduced the "hamburger steak".

At the St. Louis World's Fair in 1904, hamburger steaks were served on buns for the first time. Hamburgers on buns were convenient and taste good. This became the usual way of eating hamburgers. How did the hamburger become the most popular, most typical American food? The introduction of the bun is an important part of the answer. Another important part is McDonald's, the fast food restaurant. The first McDonald's was opened in San Bernadino, California, in 1949. Hamburgers were the main item on its menu. People liked the restaurant's fast service. By the 1960s, there were many McDonald's restaurants. McDonald's was a part of nearly every community in the United States. There were also other fast food restaurants that sold hamburgers. McDonald's alone sold millions of hamburgers a year.

Today, of course, there are McDonald's restaurants around the world. The food they serve is considered typically American. And although McDonald's has expanded its menu, the main item on that menu is – as always – the hamburgers.

Task 1: TRUE or FALSE

19. The hamburger was named after a German town.
20. When served on buns, hamburger steaks taste better and become more popular.
21. McDonald's restaurants were partly responsible for the hamburger's popularity.
22. Hamburgers are sold only in McDonald's restaurants.
