English for children

Listen to the conversation and fill in the blanks.

Valery: Time to wake up! It's AM.
Ed: Ugh, already? All right, let's get up and start the day.
Valery: First things first, let's make the . It will only take a few .
Ed: Okay. At , the bed will be nice and tidy.
Valery: Now, it's time for a refreshing shower. We should be done by .
Ed: A shower sounds great. Then we can get dressed and comb our by .
Valery: Perfect. At we'll have a good to fuel up for the day.
Ed: I'm getting just thinking about it. At we'll leave for .
Valery:: We should arrive at at , just in time to start our first class.
Ed: The goes by fast. At it's time for recess. We're going to have fun on the swings, slide, and see-saw.
Valery: That sounds great. We'll enjoy recess before going back to class at .
Ed: ends at pm. Then we can go .
Valery: After a long , we'll get at pm.
Ed: It's time for a well-deserved . We will have at .
Valery: After that, we'll do our at
Ed: We'll need some brains for that. At it's time for .
Valery: We'll clear the table and do the dishes when we finish .
Ed: After taking care of the chores, we'll brush our and get ready for .
Valery: By p.m. we'll be in , ready for a good night's sleep.

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

First, listen to the audio and fill in the blanks and finally choose the clock that indicates the time you heard.

It's time to up. It's AM.

It's time to make the . It's AM.

It's time to take a . It's AM.

It's to get dressed. It's AM.

It's time for . I'ts AM

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS