Name: _____

Religious Studies

Friendship

Instructions: Read and select the correct answer to fill in the blank.

money	need	time	24
friendship	disciples	love	honest

Friendship is a close relationship between persons based on mutual respect and_____. There are many benefits of true _____. A good friend is someone with whom you can share secrets, spend quality _____and share your dreams and goals. A _____ friend will even correct you when you are wrong.

Jesus was the perfect example of a true friend. He selected twelve special men to be his _____/friends. He spent quality time teaching them. He showed them how to be of service to others. Jesus helped His friends when they were in a terrible storm. He also provided food for them and even helped them find _____to pay their taxes. Jesus was a true friend.

An individual will have friends throughout his/her lifetime. Some people have lots of friends, others have only a few. It is not always easy to make and keep friends. Tips for making and keeping friends include the following: Be a good listener; be accepting; and be _____.

There are many scriptures and famous quotes about friendship. Scriptures include: Proverbs 17:17, Proverbs 18: _____; Proverbs and 22:24. Proverbs 18:24 states that some friends are more loyal than brothers. A famous quote about friendship is, "A friend in _____is a friend indeed." This quote suggests that a true friend will help you when you are experiencing difficulties.

LIVEWORKSHEETS