English for children

Listen to the story and fill in the blanks.

- Once upon a time, there was a boy named Tim. Let's take a look at his daily routine

- Every , Tim and wonders, " ?". He looks at the and sees that it's . ! . gets out of and starts his .

- At , Tim and to up and freshen up. After showering, he quickly gets .

- At , Tim down to the kitchen for . eats cereal and milk to start the off right.

- At , Tim leaves the and heads to . just in to his at . to the , and he to and . to the , new things, and has fun with his .

- During recess at , Tim and around with his . They have a great together.

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

- At , it's time for . Tim goes to the cafeteria and enjoys a delicious meal with his classmates.

- After , Tim comes home at . and then starts doing his homework. He helps with chores like tidying his or taking out the trash.

- Once his chores are done, Tim sits down to do his . He concentrates and works hard to complete all of his homework.

- At it is time for . Tim and his eat dinner together. share anecdotes from the and enjoy each other's company.

- Finally, it's time for . Tim brushes his , puts on his , and goes to . closes his and falls
- asleep, ready for a new tomorrow.

- And that's Tim's daily routine full of waking up, getting ready, going to school, playing, doing homework, eating, and getting a good night's sleep.

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS