How to speak so that people would listen?

- Do you ever notice that people don't really listen to you as you speak? Why is that?
- They say there is a number of habits we should move away from if we really want to speak powerfully and make a change. What are these habits? Look at the pictures below and try to guess what they are.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Watch from 0:35 – 2:47 and check your ideas.

- Do you ever fall into any of these?
- Comment on why we'd better avoid them.
- Is there any positive way to think about this?

Watch from 2:57 – 3:55

- What are the cornerstones the speaker is mentioning? What do they stand for?

- Are these things absolute? For example, honesty? Or, is it easy to judge someone you love?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Watch from 4:17 – 7:08

- What kind of toolbox does the speaker mention? What's inside of it?

- How does this toolbox add to the power of speaking?
- Do you pull these tools off out as well?
- What is the register of the voice responsible for?
- What do we associate the depth of the voice with?
- How to improve your timbre?
- What's prosody about? Why does the lack of prosody restrict our ability to communicate?
- When we want to emphasize, do we go faster or slow down the pace?
- Can you try to say the sentence with a different pitch: 'Where did you leave my keys?' How does the meaning of your message deliver? Any difference?
- Do you ever broadcast the volume of your voice?

Watch 7:35 – 9:00

- Why is it important to warm-up your voice before you speak?
- How can you warm it up? Any vocal warm-up exercises?
- Do you ever warm-up your vocal engine? Do you feel any difference?

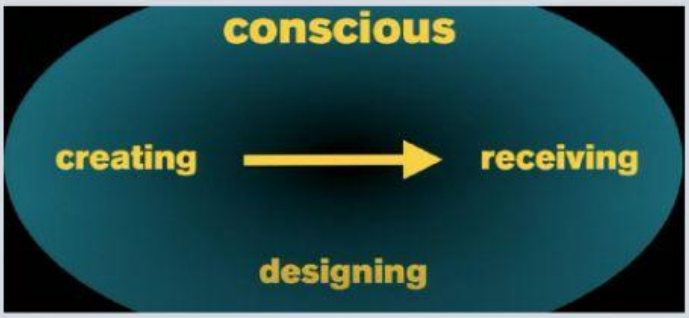

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Watch from 9:00 – till the end

- Look at the graph and try to summarize the key ideas of the video:

LIVEWORKSHEETS