7 Lesson 2 Grammar

1 Circle the correct words.

1 Open the door, please. Somebody / Nobody is outside.
2 All the students are happy. Everybody / Nobody is sad.
3 It's hot in here. Can everybody / somebody open the window?
4 The class loves the drums. Anybody / Everybody wants to play them!
5 There isn't somebody / anybody in the classroom. It's empty.
6 Does anybody / somebody have any questions?

2 Complete. anyone anyone everyone everyone no one someone

3 Write anybody, somebody, everybody or nobody.

1 _____ is in the music room because all the students are in the playground.
2 I can hear a saxophone. Is _____ in the music room?
3 Can _____ play the piano with their eyes closed?
4 Look! _____ is waving at us. I think it's Tim.
5 We all want to play the tambourine. _____ wants to play the violin.
6 There are a lot of people in the town hall. _____ is waiting for the mayor.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Look, read and match.

a She put something on the table. ☐

b He didn't put anything on the table. ☐

c She put everything on the table. ☐

d They put nothing on the table. ☐

5 Write anything, something, everything or nothing.

1 I'm hot and thirsty. I'd like _____ to drink.

2 Please don't leave your things in the classroom. Take _____ with you.

3 What's that in the garden? Can you see _____?

4 My bag is empty. There's _____ in my bag.

5 I visited the museum last weekend. I bought you _____ from the gift shop.

6 No snacks, please. Lunch is in 30 minutes. Don't eat _____ before lunch.

6 Complete the dialogue.

Jane: Did you buy [1]_____ for Mum for her birthday?

Pete: Yes. I bought her [2]_____ to put her bracelets in.

Jane: I don't know what to buy her. She's got [3]_____ she needs.

Pete: I know. There's [4]_____ she really wants. Why don't you play [5]_____ on your violin for her?

Jane: But I can't think of [6]_____ to play.

Pete: How about Happy Birthday?

➔ Go to Grammar check page 130

LIVEWORKSHEETS