

Listening 16

You will hear an interview to a fashion designer.

1. What helped Pamela to decide to become a fashion designer?
2. What is important to progress in fashion?
3. What do you need to create your own line?
4. Where should a designer find inspiration from?
5. What aspect of her job does Pamela find most difficult to deal with?
6. What advice does Pamela give to people who want a career in fashion?

Listening 16 (Answers)

You will hear an interview to a fashion designer.

1. What helped Pamela to decide to become a fashion designer?

Talking to the owner of a self-designed clothes shop.

2. What is important to progress in fashion?

Personal talent is important.

3. What do you need to create your own line?

You need money and a clear overview of its development.

4. Where should a designer find inspiration from?

He/She should find inspiration from his/her surroundings and closest circles.

5. What aspect of her job does Pamela find most difficult to deal with?

She finds difficult dealing with the great quantity of work.

6. What advice does Pamela give to people who want a career in fashion?

She advises them to understand that there are lots of possibilities apart from creating your own line.