

Defining Relative Clauses

1. Write the correct relative pronoun "which", "who", "that", "where":

June 5,

I have heard about the monster _____ lives in the lake and only a few people saw it. But I have never thought this monster lives here. But luckily, today my grunkle Stan decided to take us to the place _____ we can go fishing together - Gravity Falls lake. And here we heard about the monster _____ lives on Scuttlebutt Island within the lake. I with my sister Mabel decided to change our plans and go on adventure! We also had some help from Soos _____ went with us. Mabel had her own reasons to find the monster because she wanted to buy a hamster ball _____ is very big and made for humans. First, we were disappointed that we believed old man McGucket _____ is a local strange person. We discovered only a colony of beavers _____ were chewing a broken ship. But suddenly Mabel and Soos saw a monster _____ appeared from the lake and started chasing us.

We managed to hide in the cave _____ was behind the waterfall. And we had a great surprise because the monster happened to be a giant robot _____ was operated by McGucket. He created the machine to attract attention and we felt guilty for our grunkle Stan _____ was left alone. So we returned to Stan and took our last camera _____ was the only one left after the monster hunt. And we spent really good time while fishing.