

Select the correct sentences with correct punctuation.

A	B	C
It was a fine evening Haziq and his brother, Johan were cycling to the park at about 5.00 p.m	It was a fine evening. Haziq and his brother, Johan were cycling to the Park at about 5.00 p.m	It was a fine evening. Haziq and his brother, Johan were cycling to the park at about 5.00 p.m.

A	B	C
On their way, they heard a loud cry for help from the drain. Without second thought, they stopped their bicycles.	On their way they heard a loud cry for help from the drain. without second thought, they stopped their bicycles.	On their way, they heard a loud cry for help from the drain. Without second thought they stopped their bicycles.

A	B	C
Being curious, they ran as fast as lightning towards the drain.	Being curious they ran as fast as lightning towards the drain.	Being curious they ran as fast as lightning towards the drain

A	B	C
They were stunned as they saw an unlucky boy. He was crying loudly because he broke his left arm	They were stunned as they saw an unlucky boy he was crying loudly because he broke his left arm.	They were stunned as they saw an unlucky boy. He was crying loudly because he broke his left arm.

A	B	C
Then they took the boy to the nearby hospital. before leaving the boy thanked Haziq and his brother.	Then, they took the boy to the nearby hospital. Before leaving the boy thanked haziq and his brother.	Then, they took the boy to the nearby hospital. Before leaving, the boy thanked Haziq and his brother.