No. 1 to 9 refer to the text below

An old lion realized one day that due to old age he was too weary and weak to hunt for his food. Sadly, he approached his den knowing that soon he would perish. He stopped at the entrance, and breathed difficulty, spoke in a low, soft voice to a pack of wolves which was passing by his den at the moment. He told them of his sad condition.

Soon, the news of the lion's illness spread throughout the forest and caused much concern among the other beasts. Out of pity, the animals came one by one to pay their last respects. The old lion was very happy. As each animal entered his den and came within reach, the lion pounced on it and made it his meal. Very soon, the lion became fat.

Early in the morning, the fox came. He had come to pay his respects too. The fox, well-known for his wits and intelligence, approached the lion's den with extreme caution.

Standing some distance away, he politely enquired about the lion's health and asked him if he was feeling any better.

"My dear friend," said the lion, "is it you? I can hardly see you. You are so far away. Please come closer and whisper some words into my ears to console me for I have not long to live. The fox, meanwhile, had been observing closely the ground in front of the lion's den. At last, he looked up, and turning to go away, he remarked, "Please excuse me if I do not stay, for I feel quite uneasy at seeing the many footprints leading into your den, but none leaving it."

Text for number 10 to 12 !

Jl. Jambu 129

Bandung, 30th Januari 2017

Dear Fred,

It was a real sorrow that I heard this morning of your great loss. I knew your mother was ill. For your brother told me several weeks ago. However, as he at that time did not seem to think. The illness was very serious, the news of your mother's death came to me as a shock. You have my sincere and heartfelt sympathy, my dear fellow, in your sorrow. I know you will feel it deeply, for you always thought so much of your mother and loved her so truly. I feel it also as a personal loss to myself for your mother was always very kind to me. I admired her a good and noble woman. Her death must be a terrible grief to your father too. Please assure him of my sincere sympathy.

Words, I know, are poor comforters. "The heart knows its own sorrow", and in such sorrows we are always alone. However, it is not mere words when I say that I feel with you in your sorrow.

Your sincere friends,

Jack

This song to question for number 16 to 19 !

You are My Sunshine

(Johnny Cash)

[Verse 1]

The other night dear, as I lay sleeping

I dreamed I held you in my arms

When I awoke, dear, I was mistaken

So I bowed my head and I cried

[Chorus]

You are my sunshine, my only sunshine You make me happy when skies are gray You'll never know, dear, how much I love you Please don't take my sunshine away

[Verse 2]

I've always loved you and made you happy

And nothing else could come between

But now you've left me to love another

You have shattered all of my dreams

[Chorus]

You are my sunshine, my only sunshine

You make me happy when skies are gray You'll never know, dear, how much I love you

Please don't take my sunshine away

The following text is for number 20-24!

Human body is made up of countless millions of cells. Food is needed to build up new cells and replace the worn out cells. However, the food that we take must be changed into substance that can be carried in the blood to the places where they are needed, this process is called digestion.

The first digestive process takes places in the mouth. The food we eat is broken up into small pieces by the action of teeth, mixed with saliva, a juice secreted by glands in the mouth. Saliva contains digestive juice which moisten the food, so it can be swallowed easily.

From the mouth, food passes through the esophagus (the food passage) into the stomach. Here, the food is mixed with the juices secreted by the cells in the stomach for several hours. Then the food enters the small intestine. All the time the muscular walls of the intestine are squeezing, mixed and moving the food onwards.

In a few hours, the food changes into acids. There are soon absorbed by the villi (microscopic branch projections from the intestine walls) walls and passed into the bloodstream.
