Gravity pulls the robot down towards earth

Applied force happens when you pull or push the robot

Normal force balances the weight on a surface

Friction happens when the wheels rub against the surface

Forces acting on the effector should be similar to those as shown in the example:

LIVEWORKSHEETS