use of english

CROSSWORD

Read the clues to solve the crossword. Each word is a part of an idiomatic expression connected with laughter, an idispensable element of positive thinking.

	CLUES
1	A source of fun or amusement – a barrel of _____
2	To make or tell a joke – to _____ a joke
3	Only for the sake of fun, excitement, or distraction – for _____
4	To be earning a lot of money easily – to be laughing all the way to the _____
5	An exclamation of disbelief, like "Are you being serious?" or "Are you kidding me?" (primarily heard in UK) – Are you _____ a laugh?
6	To laugh without being able stop – to be rolling in the _____
7	A humorous response to a statement that one thinks is ridiculous or highly improbable, as if it were a joke – don't _____ me laugh
8	A mocking and sarcastic laugh – a _____ laugh
9	To laugh about something unpleasant so that it seems less important – to laugh something _____
10	A person who is made fun of because of some blunder they made – a laughing _____
11	To dismiss something presented in earnest as ridiculous – to laugh something out of _____
12	To secretly find something funny – to laugh up one's _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS