Read the clues and write the missing information. You can find this information in you class book or your notes. If you have studied, you will not need your notes or your book. GOOD LUCK!!!

1- It is the opposite of a coastal country. It is a country that is surrounded by other countries or surrounded by land. _____

2- It is a country that occupies territory in two continents. _____ _____

3- It is a city that occupies territory in two continents. _____ _____

4- Spain is one country on this continent. _____

5- The Ural Mountains and the Ural River separate Asia and _____ .

6- It is the number of countries in Europe. _____

7- It is the approximate population of Europe. _____ million people.

8- It is a large area of land, usually surrounded by water. _____

9- It is the largest lake in Europe. _____ _____

10- It is the most mountainous region in Europe. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS