Today is my birthday party, I am turning 6.

I am so happy because a lot of friends are coming. My dad is inflating the balloons, my mom is baking a chocolate cake, and my sister is decorating some cupcakes with my favorite flavors, vanilla and strawberry. There are some chips on the table and look delicious, and the streamers are still on the floor, I can not help because I am too small. I am excited to see the clown's and magician show, I hope we can get fun.
