Put the correct words in the context:

1. M_____ have complained bitterly that the government did not fulfill their promises.

2. Johnson thought he had the board of directors in the p_____ o_____ his h_____.

3. They must be h_____ r_____ for all the losses caused by the delay in delivery of goods.

4. A report by the state p_____ described the police action as confused and disorganised.

5. Several leading pr experts are involved in the political c_____.

6. The c_____ was reconstituted after May 26. It was composed entirely of specialists.

Hints:

- a person who works underground
- to have complete control over someone
- blame someone for something
- a legal representative who officially brings a case against someone in a court of lawa
- a planned group of activities that are intended to achieve a goal
- small group of people chosen to represent a larger organization and either make decisions or collect information for it

LIVEWORKSHEETS