B. GRAMMAR

I. Prepositions preceding nouns in time phrases: in/on/at (Giới từ đứng trước danh từ trong mệnh đề thời gian: in/on/at)

1. In: We use the preposition “in” for months, years, centuries and long periods.

Ex: in May, in summer, in 1990, in the 1980s, in the next century, in the past, etc.

2. On: We use the preposition “on” for days and dates.

Note: We say “on Monday morning” but “in the morning”.

II. Compound adjectives (Tính từ ghép)

- A compound adjective is formed by combining two or more words together and used to describe nouns. The words are connected by a hyphen or hyphens.

Ex: short-handed staff, blue-collar workers, grass-fed beef, one-of-a-kind website, etc.

- When a compound adjective starts with an adverb, it often does not get a hyphen.

Ex: overly affectionate person, warmly received welcome, neatly pressed shirt, etc.

- With compound adjectives, a hyphen is necessary to communicate that the two (or more) words are working together as a single compound adjective.

Ex: She drove a yellowed-striped car. (Her car is decorated with yellow stripes.)

She drove a yellow, striped car. (Her car is yellow and decorated with stripes of another color.)

PET 6 – TEST 4 – READING PART 3

Write a winning story!

You could win £1,000 in this year's Fiction Prize and have your story printed in Keep Writing magazine. Ten other lucky people will win a cheque for £100.

Once again, we need people who can write good stories. The judges, who include Mary Littlejohn, the novelist, Michael Brown, the television reporter, and Susan Hitchins, Keep Writing's editor, are looking for interesting and original stories. Detective fiction was extremely popular last year, although the competition winner produced a love story. You can write about whatever you want but here's some advice to start you thinking:

- Write about what you know

This is the advice which every writer should pay attention to and, last year, nearly everyone who wrote for us did exactly that. Love, family, problems with friends – these were the main subjects of the stories. However, you need to turn ordinary situations into something interesting that people will want to read about. Make the reader want to continue reading by writing about ordinary things in a new and surprising way.

- Get your facts right

It's no good giving a description of a town or explaining how a jet engine works if you get it wrong. So avoid writing anything unless you're certain about it.

- Hold the reader's attention

Make the beginning interesting and the ending a surprise. There is nothing worse than a poor ending. Develop the story carefully and try to think of something unusual happening at the end.

- Think about the characters

Try to bring the people in your story alive for the reader by using well-chosen words to make them seem real.

Your story must be your own work, between 2,000 and 2,500 words and typed, double-spaced, on one side only of each sheet of paper.

Even if you're in danger of missing the closing date, we are unable to accept stories by fax or email. You must include the application form with your story. Unfortunately your story cannot be returned, nor can we discuss our decisions.

You should not have had any fiction printed in any magazine or book in this country – a change in the rules by popular request – and the story must not have appeared in print or in recorded form, for example on radio or TV, anywhere in the world.

Your fee of £5 will go to the Writers' Association. Make your cheque payable to Keep Writing and send it with the application form and your story to:

Keep Writing
75 Broad Street
Birmingham
B12 4TG

The closing date is 30 July and we will inform the winner within one month of this date. Please note that if you win, you must agree to have your story printed in our magazine.
