

	1	to be an item	a	used as a title of courtesy often by attorneys usually placed in its abbreviated form after the surname
	2	esquire (Esq.)	b	to cause disagreement between (people or groups)
	3	rusty	c	to choose not to participate in something
	4	to come between smb.	d	to drink a lot of alcohol.
	5	to turn a blind eye to smth.	e	to have physical sexual contact between individuals that involves the genitalia of at least one person
	6	to have intercourse with smb.	f	a distinguishing quality
	7	sinister	g	to enter a room or building in a way that makes people notice you
	8	to opt out	h	to have a romantic or sexual relationship
	9	to stick it out	i	to remember something
	10	to hit the bottle	j	to tease, ridicule, or mock someone
	11	to think of smb./smth.	k	to carry on or endure something until it is ended
	12	trait	l	weakened by neglect, disuse, or lack of practice.
	13	to make an entrance	m	something that seems evil or harmful
	14	to bust one's balls	n	to pretend you do not notice something, because you should do something about it but you do not want to