

Complete the text with the simple past, used to, or would form of the verbs. In some cases, you can use more than one form.

I remember when I first <sup>1</sup> _____ (move) to New York from California with my parents. Every day for the first month, I <sup>2</sup> _____ (stand) in the street and stare up at the skyscrapers. They <sup>3</sup> _____ (be) taller than anything I'd ever seen. The streets <sup>4</sup> _____ (be) much busier than in California, and I <sup>5</sup> _____ (run) from one side to the other holding my mother's hand. For the first few months, we <sup>6</sup> _____ (not / go) farther than four blocks from home. My parents <sup>7</sup> _____ (not / own) a car, so on Sunday mornings we <sup>8</sup> _____ (take) the subway to Central Park. We <sup>9</sup> _____ (have) breakfast at a great deli, and then we <sup>10</sup> _____ (go) skating.
