| (1)                             | Saturday afternoon I went               |
|---------------------------------|---|
|                                 | to meet my friend Jack, but there were  |
|                                 | olems. (2), I missed                    |
|                                 | I waited half an hour for the next      |
| The second second second second | I arrived in town I went to a café.     |
| A STATE OF THE STATE OF         | buy a drink, (3)                        |
|                                 | e any money. My money was in my         |
|                                 | ny bag was on the bus!                  |
|                                 | I went to the main square               |
|                                 |   |
|                                 | ck in front of the post office at five  |
|                                 | always comes to town by bike.           |
|                                 | nd waited and waited. Jack didn't       |
|                                 | il quarter to six (5)                   |
| there was                       | a problem with his bike.                |
| The shops i                     | closed at six o'clock, so we weren't    |
| sure what                       | to do. (6), we decided                  |
|                                 | inema. Jack wanted to see one film,     |
| 1                               | ted to see a different one. In the end, |
|                                 | see Jack's film. It was a science-      |
|                                 | n and there weren't any good actors in  |
|                                 | really boring (7)                       |
| I went to s                     |   |
|                                 | Charles and Additional and Alexander    |
