ENTRANCE EXAM 6 – PART 1 – LISTENING

Exercise 11: You will hear a teacher talking to students about a sports day. Supply the missing information. You should write NO MORE THAN four words. An example is done for you.

Example:

We have changed the day of our sports day this year. This is because we want to include swimming events and our new swimming pool won't be ready until June 4th.

Question 1. The new date will be _____. I think this will be much better for everybody.

Question 2. I hope that all of you will be interested in doing something for our sports day. Please put your name on the events list, if you would like to take part. The list will be put on the wall _____ until Thursday.

Question 3. If you have any questions, Miss Pink, that's P I N K our sports teacher, will be _____ them during lunch break, on Monday. We will have many of our usual events, such as a volleyball match and, of course, a football match.

Question 4. However, this year we will also have one more new event. This is _____ in which teachers can take part. It will be at the end of the day, before prizes are given to the winners of each race.

I hope to see you all there!

Exercise 12: You will hear a museum guide talking to a group of students. Supply the missing information. You should write NO MORE THAN four words. An example is done for you.

Example:

Welcome to the Museum of the Natural World. I know most of you are interested in the new dinosaur exhibition, so I will take you there first.

Question 1. The tour will take 1 hour. Afterwards, you can look at the rainforest and _____ by yourselves. Don't foreet that your coach leaves at 11am, so you have 3 hours, in total, for your visit.

Question 2. There are _____ at the information desk. Please remember, you cannot take photographs in the museum. Of course, you may write down information in your note books if you like.

Question 3. Next year we will have a new exhibition on technology and the natural world. We were hoping to have it ready _____.

Question 4. Unfortunately, it will now open a month later, on April 12th, a week before the school holidays, which start on April 20th. We hope you can visit us again, then! When you leave the museum today, please remember to collect your coats from the _____.

Enjoy your visit!
